Bible reading

Matt 20: 1-16 - New International Version (NIV)

“For the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire workers for his vineyard. He agreed to pay them a denarius for the day and sent them into his vineyard. “About nine in the morning he went out and saw others standing in the marketplace doing nothing. He told them, ‘You also go and work in my vineyard, and I will pay you whatever is right.’ So they went.

“He went out again about noon and about three in the afternoon and did the same thing. About five in the afternoon he went out and found still others standing around. He asked them, ‘Why have you been standing here all day long doing nothing?’

“‘Because no one has hired us,’ they answered.

“He said to them, ‘You also go and work in my vineyard.’

“When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his foreman, ‘Call the workers and pay them their wages, beginning with the last ones hired and going on to the first.’

“The workers who were hired about five in the afternoon came and each received a denarius. So when those came who were hired first, they expected to receive more. But each one of them also received a denarius. When they received it, they began to grumble against the landowner. ‘These who were hired last worked only one hour,’ they said, ‘and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the work and the heat of the day.’

“But he answered one of them, ‘I am not being unfair to you, friend. Didn’t you agree to work for a denarius? Take your pay and go. I want to give the one who was hired last the same as I gave you. Don’t I have the right to do what I want with my own money? Or are you envious because I am generous?’ “So the last will be first, and the first will be last.”

Bible reading

Philippians 1: 21 -30 - New International Version (NIV)

For to me, to live is Christ and to die is gain. If I am to go on living in the body, this will mean fruitful labour for me. Yet what shall I choose? I do not know! I am torn between the two: I desire to depart and be with Christ, which is better by far; but it is more necessary for you that I remain in the body. Convinced of this, I know that I will remain, and I will continue with all of you for your progress and joy in the faith, so that through my being with you again your boasting in Christ Jesus will abound on account of me.

Whatever happens, conduct yourselves in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ. Then, whether I come and see you or only hear about you in my absence, I will know that you stand firm in the one Spirit,[a] striving together as one for the faith of the gospel without being frightened in any way by those who oppose you. This is a sign to them that they will be destroyed, but that you will be saved—and that by God. For it has been granted to you on behalf of Christ not only to believe in him, but also to suffer for him, 30 since you are going through the same struggle you saw I had, and now hear that I still have.

Prayers

Intercessions for Trinity 15 - Sunday 20 September 2020

Generous God, you call all to work for your kingdom. Give your worldwide, multi-denominational Church the grace to rejoice when anyone joins this ministry. We ask your anointing on all leaders, whether they have the overall responsibility of leading a specific church, or they head up the leadership of different ministries within a church.

However, may we all realize that, whatever our age, there will always be work for us to be doing. The work of prayer never ends. The work of witnessing to the glory of God by who we are and the way we live will be ongoing till we join Jesus in glory. The work of ministering the love of God to our family, friends, neighbours, and any who cross our path, is ceaseless. Striving side by side, may we rejoice in your service.

Lord in your mercy – Hear our prayer

Prayers

2

Generous God, your desire is for all people to be treated equably and with justice.

We pray for all those who are working in slave- like conditions; where safety regulations are not adhered to; where the well-being of employees is neglected; where people are working long, hard hours for very little pay; where people are forced to carry out tasks against their will.

We pray for all employers, that they will strengthen the conditions of service to enhance all humanity: that they will never view their employees as merely economic commodities.

Lord in Your Mercy – Hear our Prayer

Prayers

3

Generous God, you are the giver of gifts and the source of our talents.

We ask that you would give us the courage to discern those God-given talents bestowed upon us and then enable us to use them for your glory and the furthering of your kingdom here on earth. Help us to remember that some talents will be obvious for others to see and some will only be seen by you, but that, nonetheless, we need to execute them all joyfully and with thanksgiving because whatever we do we do unto you. And we ask that you transform all our labours to reflect your creating presence wherever they are performed.

Lord in Your Mercy – Hear our Prayer

3

Generous God, you bless us beyond the limitations of our physical condition. Open our eyes to the mystery of your love in our human weakness, and especially to all those who are in great need of your touch and healing at this time, whatever the reason. We silently name them now for your blessing and healing to fall upon them.

Merciful Father, accept these prayers through our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Amen

The background of the image shows three large, simple crosses standing on a dark silhouette of a hill. The sky is a gradient of light blue at the top, transitioning to a warm orange and yellow glow at the horizon, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The crosses are positioned in a row, with the central one being the tallest and the two flanking ones being shorter.

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
In the name of Christ. Amen.
