Bible reading

1 John 3 v1-3

See what great love the Father has lavished on us, that we should be called children of God! And that is what we are! The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. ² Dear friends, now we are children of God, and what we will be has not yet been made known. But we know that when Christ appears, ^[a] we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is. ³ All who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

Broken

things can become blessed things

if you let God
do the mending.

Bible reading

Matthew 5 v1-12

Now when Jesus saw the crowds, he went up on a mountainside and sat down. His disciples came to him, ² and he began to teach them.

The Beatitudes

He said:

³ 'Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

⁴ Blessed are those who mourn,
for they will be comforted.

⁵ Blessed are the meek,
for they will inherit the earth.

⁶ Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness,
for they will be filled.

Bible reading

Matthew 5 v1-12

⁷ Blessed are the merciful,
for they will be shown mercy.

⁸ Blessed are the pure in heart,
for they will see God.

⁹ Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they will be called children of God.

¹⁰ Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

• ¹¹ 'Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of me. ¹² Rejoice and be glad, because great is your reward in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

Prayers

Intercessions for All Saints Day (2020)

Blessed Lord, your Son turned expectations upside down by offering the Kingdom to the poor and persecuted.

Give your multi-denominational Church faith to trust in you and not in riches or the trappings of power.

Strengthen all who suffer for following you: and our thoughts and prayers go out particularly to the church community in Nice in France, who are reeling in the aftermath of the atrocious killings which happened in their building this week. Your sacred ground was ruthlessly desecrated and grief, instead of worship, now abounds. Heal their wounds and minister to their broken hearts and lives. Be so close to them that, against all the odds, this wicked act will result in the Christian community increasing and flourishing in the days to come.

Prayers

Blessed Lord, you called peacemakers your children and honoured those who hunger and thirst after righteousness.

We ask you to guide all in political office around the world to walk in your mercy and your truth. May they be agents of justice and equity to all.

And we especially pray for your guidance and wisdom to manifest itself as so many governments seek to take the right course of action as this second wave of coronavirus begins to bite hard. In the midst of trying to do the right thing for the good of all, may common sense and goodwill be evident in large measure.

Prayers

Blessed Lord, you show yourself to the pure in heart. May more and more hearts on this estate turn to you and find a new joy in living and a new hope for the future.

We remember today all the schools returning to full function after the half term break. Many have struggled to keep all classes open due to the problems with covid 19 and self-isolating. So many teachers and support staff have worked tirelessly to ensure that there are safe spaces and routines in which the children can still learn effectively. It has been exhausting for everyone. May they return tomorrow feeling at least somewhat refreshed.

Thank you for all the care and protocols that have been put in place in our own St James School.

Prayers

Blessed Lord, you hear the cries of all who are in pain and misery. You comfort all who mourn. We ask you to be with all those whose hearts ache with grief or whose bodies and minds are in any kind of distress or suffering.

We silently name those we know before you now..... We ask for your holy revival and wholeness to pervade all our beings so that whether our lives are dark or light, whether we are joyful or in sorrow, whether we are in any sort of pain or rosy with health, we will stay faithful in praising you and giving you glory in all things.
